

THE ULTIMATE
Portals
OF HOPE

An original of
Ms. Wilson's 5th grade class at Washington Writers' Academy in conjunction with Read And Write Kalamazoo

A Division of Geological & Musicological Survey Co. Publications
Copyright 2018

Published March 27th, 2018

For more information about Read And Write Kalamazoo's literacy focused programs, please visit www.readandwritekzoo.org

Today's Story Helpers Are:
Leader: Jason Conde
Illustrator: Emily Kastner
Typist: Victoria Marcetti
Support: Destin  Price, John Ephland, and Julie Wheat

The Ultimate Portals of Hope

There was once a planet called The Golden Forest that was sort of like Earth but not quite. There were rain forests and wild jungles, grassy hills with lots of trees, the Great Red Forest, and a golden mountain range that was always growing bigger and bigger. There was rainbow slime in the air and when the crystallized sunlight shone through, it created constant rainbows. In the day it was always sunny and warm but then a deep rainy darkness would set upon the world.

The world was populated by magical creatures called Crystal

Dragons. They were covered in blue and white stripes, had a magic unicorn horn, a spiky lion's tail, dragon wings, and five eyes on their face. They were bigger than a building and floated around on the red cotton candy clouds. Crystal Dragons were omnivores, roared like lions but could also speak English, and could shoot crystals out of their mouths.

The water on this planet was a beautiful sparkly gold color and smelled like roses, if you drank it everything you wished for in your entire life would come true. However, it was guarded by mighty Oompa flowers. They looked like roses and had sharp stems and sharp triangle teeth. They were tall as sunflowers and could shapeshift. Their blue petals changed colors as they opened to shoot their thorns at anyone who disturbed them.

Deep inside the Great Red Forest were a number of hidden portals that one could use to travel around but you needed a map to find them and they were guarded by giant red poodles. When you turned 10 years old you could begin a quest for the maps. If you survived in the forest for 2 years you would earn the right to a map. Only two people had the strength and courage to complete this quest, so the portals remained hidden. Everyone else just had to walk.

Deep in the rainforest was an invisible castle that was home to Mr. Golden Snake Master. He was 7 foot 5 inches, had bullet-proof gold snake skin and invisible wings, and was immortal. Mr. Master had a map that allowed him to use the secret portals. He used the portals to help people get to the magical golden water to have their wishes granted and to help reverse the genie's spell that kept Dr. Cyclops Redeye evil.

Dr. Cyclops Redeye was a mad scientist with a long pointy black beard, one scarred red eye, and an eye patch over the other eye. He changed colors depending on what he was touching. He lived in a cave on the edge of the Great Red Forest and worked tirelessly to stop people from earning their portal maps, even though he already had his own. He controlled the forest monsters with his red eye. Mr. Golden Snake Master had hurt his other eye during their quests to earn their portal maps.

Stella was a brown skinned teenage girl who had long straight gold hair that she she used to protect herself. Half of her face and one of her arms were robotic and she wore battle armor and spiked-bottom boots. She had a special tunnel that let her get to her home under the gold water without facing the oompas. She got to make a lot of wishes because she lived under the gold water. She was special because of her big heart, sense of humor, seriousness, and desire to help people. When she was 6 years old Dr. Cyclops took her parents hostage. She hoped that with the help of her pet crystal dragon and Mr. Master she would be able to rescue them.

Dr. Cyclops Redeye had an ally as well. Dr. Savashki lived in an underground lair under the oompas. He was friends with them and they helped protect him, he could even shoot oompas and fire out of his hands. He had a single black circular eye, a black face mask with white and red outlines. His skin was silver and bumpy and covered in plants. He had a vine mustache, spiky petal hair, and plant-pot shoes. He wrongly blamed Mr. Master for his father's death and was determined to take revenge.

One day Stella and Mr. Golden Snake Master were out for a walk, discussing their quest for peace. Little did they know, Dr. Cyclops Redeye and Dr. Savashki were also out for a walk and had revenge on their minds...

MIGHTY
GOMPA
FLOWERS

MAGICAL
WATER

