The Magical Rainbow World

There was once an island covered in a rainbow pineapple tree forest. It rained pineapples that would sprout and grow so the forest was always getting larger and more dense. The giant waves of the rainbow ocean that surrounded the island would crash against the shore and water the trees so they grew big and strong. The 180 degree days shone bright with rainbow skies and a blue and purple sun and the air smelled like raspberry soap. At night as the dual moons (one diamond and one banana) looked on, there were dark and cold storms of rainbow flowers, diamonds, and money. Bright rose-gold stars spotted the darkened black and grey rainbow night sky.

Growing among the pineapple trees were apple flowers with blossoms, flowers that ate spaghetti, worms, popcorn, and peanut butter, trees that grew basketballs, and hot cheeto plants that had gold leaves and purple branches. All the flowers died at night and were reborn every day, including gold sunflower seeds that planted themselves. There were also rainbow flowers that were constantly changing colors and would occasionally talk like humans.

In the rainbow ocean surrounding the island there were fish with feet the size of large starfish, nice sharks that spit lava and ate pies, and building-sized octopi with eight eyes. Living on the island were two types of dragons, one that was part cat and one that was covered in diamonds. Among them were people who had 4 arms, 2 legs, 3 eyes, 2 ears, and sharp teeth. They spoke many languages that we wouldn't recognize.

To get around there were big robotic shark vehicles that could easily go from land to ocean. They held a lot of people and were invincible but if there were too many around they became a shark bus tornado. For solo trips, there were special teddy bears that let you teleport anywhere you wanted if you hugged them.

There were lakes and rivers made up of cranberry juice where bookfish, rainbow fish, and paper and rainbow sharks lived. There were also spots of mysterious robotic water.

Mrs. Polol was a mermaid who lived near the island in a home at the very bottom of the ocean. The walls were made of water and were opaque to everyone except her. She wore t-shirts, had black hair with highlights, a color changing tail, and a scar across her face that went through one of her eyes. It had been replaced with a special diamond eye that let her see the future. She could also shape-shift into animals. She was married to a human who would come to the ocean to visit her at night since she was nocturnal. People made fun of her scar and she wanted to make sure other people weren't made fun of. She was separated from her husband so she also advocated for the rights of mer-human couples.

Master Kungfu was Mrs. Polol's sidekick. He was a human with super powers and had earned his black belt. He also had a large pink scar on his face and lived underwater in a gold castle. He could change into a shark and teleport and he used his powers to help people who were in trouble.

Leonides Johnson lived in the dungeon of a castle on the island. He wore all black and a hat to hide his hair. Through his ripped mask you could see that one of his eyes was red and the other white, the white had a scar running through it. He had elf ears and was a human but didn't look the same as the other humans on the island. His sharp teeth were never clean and one particularly sharp tooth stuck out of his mouth. His favorite thing to eat were smoothies made of veggies, fruit, and meat- he never ate sweets because they were his weakness. He had to stay away from the rainbow water because of it. He had super hearing powers, was very strong, and could summon thunderstorms, he used his powers to play pranks on people. One year on his birthday his family died in a fire, living in the dungeon all alone made him mad.

He blamed Mrs. Polol for the fire.

Hakeen and Simone Diamond were beautiful, rich, royal twins who lived in an underground diamond mine called Lakanda. They had silver hair that shone rainbow in the sun and their skin was covered in diamonds. They had eagle wings, heat vision, and could teleport. People got the impression that they were evil (even though they weren't) and Leonides tried to take them on as sidekicks because they were so rich.

One day Leonides, Hakeen, and Simone were out for a walk. Leonides was looking for someone to play a prank on while Hakeen and Simone just enjoyed the sun on their silver hair. They were getting close to the water and Leonides was getting nervous but he had spotted Master Kungfu near the shore and figured Mrs. Polol must be close. He decided it was time to confront her so he took a deep breath and then...
