The Incredible Planet Gargamuff

There was once a planet called Gargamuff. It had grasslands (home to adorable dogs) and lots of trees that grew money, jawbreakers, and disgusting broccoli, as well as a rain forest, a beach, big mountains, a fruit punch river, lots of craters, and a magic spring in the center of the world. There was only one road that led from one place to the next, the mud was gooey, burning, and slimey, the grass was edible cereal, and there was a cold cheeseburger for a sun. The weather would swing from hot to cold to hot to cold and the snowy fluffy cotton candy clouds would often rain ice cream or snow round pellets of ice cream. These storms were always followed by beautiful rainbows. Sometimes it rained stress toys or slime. Amongst the clouds were giants black and brown birds who were bigger than buildings with 2 or 7 lightning bolt shaped wings. They made obnoxious sounds and ate the clouds. On the beach there were houses made of chocolate that would often melt and need to be rebuilt.

One of the oceans was made of junk food, Chinese food, fried food, and noodles.

Another ocean was made of lemon lime soda and home to lemon sharks, friendly clown fish, and pink dolphins. There were two volcanoes, one erupted candy and cola and the other erupted a wide variety of technology. There was a lake of slime and a hot spring that would erupt activators for the slime lake.

Another planet nearby called Planet Thenos was home to a group of people who all had gucci teeth.

Growing on Planet Gargamuff were strange cry baby Internet-Troll flowers. They were very short but when approached they would stand tall and tell you all your problems. The trees that grew broccoli played youtube vines all day, the jawbreaker trees told knock knock jokes, and there were Mors flowers that shouted at people and had a plant remote that could pause people. There were chicken nugget rocks that were usually accompanied by ketchup packets. Living in the clouds was an immortal unicorn named Shimmer who had a 3-foot horn made of diamonds and color-changing wings. She had a long white tail of rainbow tears, was multi-lingual, loved to eat chocolate, and pooped candy. She loved to make sad people happy by giving expensive gifts and having special fireworks displays. To get around people had planes made of candy and stilts to walk through the mud. You could also stand or ride on dinosaurs, giant ants or spiders, or ride a spaceship powered by cereal grass. There were lava submarines, shoes that made you fast, gucci flip flops that let you fly, horses on wheels, moving furniture, and you could teleport if you could visualize your destination. Jake and Erika (or Jericka) were twins who lived in a huge mansion underwater. They had caramel-colored skin, Jake had blond hair with blue streaks and Erika had blue hair with pink streaks. They were famous and loved to help people. Erika was a fashionista and Jake was very protective of her because they were orphans. They wanted people to know that they are good, trustworthy people who need lots of love. Jerika had some great friends. Oof man thought they were legends and lived in the mud under Itamar's bed, had a cylinder head and circle mouth, wore a shirt that said oof man and could only say, "oof". When he did though, everyone would fall to the ground. Thenos lived in the craters and had six chins, a smile that looked like a mustache, antennae eyes, and a gucci flip flop gauntlet. Slime Blob was created by Jerika so it only obeyed them. It never slept, could shape-shift, split itself, harden itself, could consume anything it wanted, and could form a protective breathable shell around people. It naturally glowed green but could change colors.

Donald McRonald the Cheeseburger Sun God stood in opposition to Jerika and their friends. It looked like an egghead with no eyelids, had pointed ears, 120 chins, long eye lashes, a crooked smile, a furry unibrow, tiny pupils, a goatee with a chicken nugget remnant stuck in it, pencils stuck in its hair, chocolate around its mouth, and always had lots of boogers in its nose and spinach stuck in its teeth. It lived with its mom in a rainbow hippie van down by the fruit punch river. It could only say, "hi kid" and had a devilish laugh. When the sun went down it would eat big burgers and throw potatoes at candy planes going past. It didn't have any friends because of all its boogers. However, Kathy Trinity and Bob Daneth didn't mind being around it so much.

Kathy Trinity had curly long blond and blue hair and could shoot lasers from her hands. She could move one eyebrow at a time and was very pretty and had weird teeth. She came from Planet Michigan and was very powerful, she could pick the world up with her hands! She was independent and liked to go to the gym and was inspired by Ellen, Oprah, and Beyonce. Bob Daneth came from Planet Jupitar and was tall with blond hair and was pretty lazy. He was rude, mean, and sexist but believed in himself. He had one laser eye and one stone eye and his head was inscribed, 'use code laser in the item shop'. One day Jerika, Oof Man, Thenos, and Slime Blob were out for a walk around the hot spring when all the sudden Donald, Kathy, and Bob were running toward them yelling at the top of their lungs...
