

THE Adventures
OF FINDING FRIENDSHIP

An original of
Ms. Rahn's 4rd grade class at Northeastern Elementary
in conjunction with Read And Write Kalamazoo

A Division of Geological & Musicological Survey Co. Publications
Copyright 2020

Published March 18th, 2020

For more information about Read And Write Kalamazoo's literacy focused programs, please visit www.readandwritekzoo.org

Today's Story Helpers Are:
Leader: Beth Keith
Typist & Illustrator: Victoria Marcetti
Support: Montana Hensel, Jeremiah Vincent

This publication was supported by:

The Kalamazoo Promise

The Adventures of Finding Friendship

There was once a world you've never seen before, covered in a vast and beautiful beach. It was so clean and nice there, with no litter anywhere in sight. It was dark for 12 hours a day no matter what time of year it was and its one moon was home to a lone boy. There was a pristine park next to a giant mountain, around the mountain were trees that grew money and there were many houses dotting the beach.

Two kinds of flowers grew throughout the world. On the beach there were tulip-like flowers that were red, yellow, and purple all at once. There were also sunflower-like flowers that had come from space. They changed color based on the temperature. The animals in this world were very unique. One was a pink and blue creature with the front end of a horse and the back end of a dog, with shark fins and deer antlers. There was also a creature that had a fish head, cat body, and 90 legs.

To get around this world one had several choices: you could take your super fast red and black rollerblades with jetpacks, a 26-tire truck, a 5-wheeled bike, or a 60-wheeled motorcycle.

Ronnie called this world home. They had rainbow skin and hair and usually stood at 6 feet, but they could change their size at will. They lived in the mountain which they had made to look like a volcano to try to keep people away. Ronnie was super fast, had laser eyes, and could shoot lava from their hands. Ronnie used to be a “bad guy” but with the help of friends they realized they wanted to do good by taking care of all the animals in the world. One of the friends who helped Ronnie was Deondray Williams, or Baby Dray for short. He had brown skin and locs and was an impressive 7’1”. He wore a red mask and black basketball shoes with his fancy expensive clothes. He lived on the beach with his spouse and 2 kids and had a second house on another planet with his friend Corporate. He was a great basketball player and people were intimidated by his skills. His superpowers included telling great jokes, a scream that could break glass, and super speed. He felt he should help Ronnie because he was so tall and strong. Scuba Sharkla also called this world home. She was...not always a human- she could turn from human to shark. She had shark teeth and a fin, smooth white scales, a long tail, and long black hair. She lived in a cave deep underwater in the ocean but could breathe above or below the water. She could create a tsunami by flapping her tail. Ronnie had forced her to leave the beach because they thought she played too rough and was scaring people with her tsunami tail. She really wanted friends and was so desperate that she sometimes tried to kidnap people from the beach and take them to her underwater home.

One day Ronnie and Baby Dray were out for a walk on the beach, smelling tulips and checking on all the animals they could find. Little did they know, Sharkla was swimming just offshore in hopes of finding a new friend. She had just wrapped her long hair around an unsuspecting person when Ronnie and Baby Dray spotted her...

Handwriting practice lines on the left page, consisting of 14 horizontal dashed lines.

Handwriting practice lines on the right page, consisting of 8 horizontal dashed lines.